

BOOKS ABROAD

Alleviating poverty through education

School text books are our priority

Books should be in relatively good used condition

Where applicable, books should not be older than approximately 10
years (marked by *)

Guidelines for book donors

Ideal books include primary school, secondary school and adult learning books.

Primary

- English Readers
- English Grammars
- Mathematics
- Arithmetic
- Geography* - Worldwide, not UK specific
- Atlases* - Worldwide, not UK specific
- Dictionaries
- Encyclopedias
- Ladybird Books
- Library Books - Fiction and Non-Fiction

Adult

- University Level Books – All subjects
- Reference Books - Not UK specific
- Health / Nursing
- Tropical Agriculture / Farming
- National Geographic Magazines
- Bibles – Good News or NIV

Secondary

- English Readers
- English Grammars
- Mathematics
- Geography* – All Physical, Human. Worldwide, not UK specific
- Atlases* - Worldwide, not UK specific
- Chemistry
- Physics
- Biology
- IT*
- Business Studies
- Technical Education - Especially Woodwork, Metalwork, Engineering
- Farming
- Sewing / Handicrafts
- Dictionaries
- Encyclopedias
- Library Books – Fiction and Non-Fiction
- Bibles - Good News or NIV

If you would like more information about Books Abroad, our projects, our school services or how you can support us, please visit our website or contact us

T: +44 (0) 1464 861446 E: info@booksabroad.org.uk W: www.booksabroad.org.uk

Unit 1, Richmond Avenue Industrial Estate, Rhynie, Huntly, Aberdeenshire, Scotland, AB54 4HJ

Books Abroad SCIO, a charity registered in Scotland SC011359. Patrons: Dr Mairi Hedderwick (author & illustrator) and Jonathan Meres (author & actor)